THAT the definition "a Recognized Opposition Party" in clause 1(3)(h) be replaced with the following:

- (h) "a Recognized Opposition Party" means an opposition party represented in the Legislative Assembly by four or more Members;

THAT Rule 2 be repealed and replaced with the following, effective April 20, 2016:

Sitting Periods

2(1) The House may meet at any time during the following sitting periods, except during the Spring Sittings when the House must begin to meet on the first Wednesday in March:

November Sittings

From Tuesday following the Remembrance Day week as described in sub-rule 2(2)(a) to the first Thursday in December.

Spring Sittings

From the first Wednesday in March to the first sitting day in June.

Fall Sittings

From the first Wednesday in October to Thursday of the week prior to the Remembrance Day Week.

Within these periods, the House is to meet on a day fixed by the Speaker at the Government's request and, unless adjourned earlier by order of the House, is to be adjourned by the Speaker, without a motion for adjournment on the applicable day. The House then stands adjourned to the call of the Speaker.

The Government may call the House into session for four additional sitting days in June after the first sitting day in June to complete consideration of Specified Bills. On the last day of these four additional sitting days the remaining stages of Specified Bills not dealt with by the usual hour of adjournment will be deemed to be adopted and concluded. The House will not rise until royal assent has been granted.

If the day of the week on which Remembrance Day falls prevents the House from sitting for seventeen days in the Fall Sittings, the House may extend daily sittings until 10:00 p.m. Each of these extended sitting days shall count as two sitting days for the purpose of achieving seventeen sitting days.

These extended sitting days may be held at any point in the Fall Sitzings for the business of supply and passage of The Budget Implementation and Tax Statutes Amendment Act and to achieve the following Completion Days for Designated Bills:

- Second Reading per sub-rule 2(17)
- Committee Stage per sub-rule 2(18)
- Report Stage per sub-rule 2(19)
- Concurrence and Third Reading per sub-rule 2(20).

On the last Thursday sitting prior to the Remembrance Day Week, the remaining steps for Designated Bills and the business of supply and passage of The Budget Implementation and Tax Statutes Amendment Act must be concluded. Any remaining steps not dealt with by the usual hour of adjournment will be deemed to be adopted and concluded. The House will not adjourn until royal assent has been granted.

The Speaker must advise the Members that the House is to meet at the time specified by the Government and of the reason for the recall.

The House then stands adjourned to the call of the Speaker.

Further recall of the House

2(5) If the House is adjourned in accordance with sub-rule 2(4), the House must not be recalled again under sub-rule 2(3) until after the House has been in recess for a period of one week.
