WHEREAS the Auditor General's report outlined the failure of the East Side Road Authority to properly train their own employees as well as train and mentor recruited employees as per the Aboriginal Engagement Strategy; and

WHEREAS the Auditor General's report uncovered significant financial mismanagement on the part of the ESRA with respect to the Aboriginal Engagement Strategy and the capacity building allowances and Community Benefit Agreements contained within it; and

WHEREAS the termination of the East Side Road Authority would support the Provincial Government's emphasis on providing better value to Manitobans within available resources; and
