Resolution No. 14: Child Advocacy Organizations

WHEREAS in Canada, one in three girls and one in six boys experience an unwanted traumatic event before they are 18 years of age, which includes but is not limited to physical, sexual and psychological abuse or exposure to intimate partner violence; and

WHEREAS tragic consequences arise when there is a failure to intervene early and effectively to protect endangered children; and

WHEREAS organizations like the Canadian Centre for Child Protection, the Joy Smith Foundation, the Child Protection Branch and others across our country work to ensure vulnerable children and families have the supports they need; and

WHEREAS Theoren Fleury, along with other advocates, victims and their families have started the Victor Walk Movement to bring awareness and a voice to those who have been affected by these traumatic incidents; and

WHEREAS through his child advocacy center and through the Respect in Schools initiative, Sheldon Kennedy has dedicated his life to ensuring that children have the best assistance available to start them on the right path; and

WHEREAS the Provincial Government has introduced both the Protecting Children (Information Sharing) Act and the Advocate for Children and Youth Act, legislation that is designed to better protect vulnerable children in Manitoba; and

WHEREAS communities must work together to provide services and supports that are responsive to the needs of children.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislative Assembly of Manitoba recognize the organizations and advocates who work to ensure the safety and protection of vulnerable Manitoba children.

And a debate arising,
